Three Rivers College is committed to providing an educational climate conducive to the personal and professional development of each individual. The college is dedicated to providing fair and impartial resolution of employee complaints. It is the practice of Three Rivers College and its Board of Trustees to resolve complaints at the lowest level possible. When complaints rise to the level that the resolution will require formal action, an employee will be given the option to file a grievance as appropriate. For more information regarding the college process, reference PR 4850 Employee Grievance Regulation.
