Separation of Employees with Accrued Vacation Leave

Upon separation of employment the employee will be entitled to any payment for accumulated vacation leave not to exceed 160 hours for Support Staff and 200 hours for Administration, Professional Staff, and 12 Month Faculty.

Closing the College due to Inclement Weather

Three Rivers College alerts employees, students and others about college closings with Operation Weather-bird. This is the procedure that is followed when weather conditions warrant closing the college. If the college closes due to inclement weather, the President monitors weather conditions and alerts the media as early in the day as possible. The President monitors the weather throughout the day to make a determination on closing a second day.

Employees must monitor the media for college closing notices on the local television, radio stations, and college web site. Administrative, professional, and classified staff will be charged equivalent hours of vacation leave if they are absent when the college (or their off-campus site of employment) is open; teaching staff will be charged equivalent hours of personal leave. If no leave balance exists, the employee will be charged the equivalent hours of unpaid leave.

III. Family and Medical Leave

Three Rivers College provides Family and Medical Leave in accordance with the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993 and subsequent amendments. FMLA provides eligible employees who work for covered employers the right to take unpaid, job-protected leave for absences due to a qualifying event. In compliance with the Family Leave Act of 1993, Three Rivers College provides eligible male and female employees up to twelve workweeks of unpaid leave during a twelve month period (defined as a “rolling” period) for specified family and medical reasons, to provide continued health insurance coverage during the leave period and to insure employee reinstatement to the same or an equivalent position following the leave period. This regulation is further contained in informational posters provided by the Department of Labor; see the Human Resources Office.

Employee Eligibility

A. In order to be considered “eligible” under FMLA guidelines, an employee must (1) have worked for Three Rivers College for at least 12 months (the 12 months do not have to be consecutive in order for an employee to be eligible) and (2) have worked at least 1,250 hours during the year preceding the start of the leave. For purposes of this regulation, full-time faculty satisfies the 1,250 hour test.

B. The determination of whether an employee meets the eligibility criteria for receiving FMLA leave is based on the amount of service (including prior service) possessed by the employee as of the date the leave actually begins.

C. Be employed at a work-site where the employer employs at least fifty (50) employees within a 75-mile radius.

D. This regulation includes both regular and temporary employees. However, Three Rivers College is not obligated to restore an employee hired for a specific term or to complete a project.

E. Must not have used all available FMLA in the 12 months prior to when the leave will commence.

F. Must have a qualifying event.

G. This policy contains no exceptions for “key employees” (e.g., a salaried FMLA-eligible employee who is among the highest paid 10 percent of all the employees of the institution).

H. Military caregivers leave can be up to 26 weeks.
Qualifying Event

A qualifying event under FMLA includes:

A. Birth and care of the employee’s newborn child.

B. Placement of a child with the employee for adoption, or by the State for foster care.

C. To care for the employee’s spouse, child or parent with a serious health condition (this does not include in-laws).

D. The employee’s own serious health condition that prevents him or her from performing the employee’s job.

E. “Any qualifying exigency” for an employee’s spouse, child, or parent on active military duty or being called to active military duty; or

F. To care for a spouse, child, parent, or next-of-kin who is a member of the Armed Forces, National Guard or Reserves and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, for a serious injury or illness suffered in the line of duty on active duty.

Length of Family Medical Leave

An eligible employee is entitled up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave within a twelve-month period without loss of seniority or benefits. When both spouses in a family work for the College, they will be entitled to a total of twelve (12) weeks of unpaid leave (rather than 12 weeks each) for the birth, adoption, for foster placement of a child, or to care for a parent with a serious health condition.

The 12-month period is defined as the 12 months prior to when the leave will commence. Only military caregiver leave provides an entitlement to 26 weeks.

All leave taken under the policy and leave for any other reason that would qualify under FMLA (e.g., worker’s compensation leave that qualifies as a serious health condition), will be counted against the employee’s leave entitlement under FMLA.
When an employee is not required to report for work for one or more weeks (e.g., employees who do not report for work during Christmas/New Year holiday, or during the summer) such days do not count against the employee’s FMLA leave.

Family and Medical Leave Information

The foregoing regulation presents the pertinent provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and complies with the requirements of the Act. If any employee desires additional information or explanation of the procedures and provisions of the Act, he/she is encouraged to seek additional information by obtaining a copy of the Act, fact sheet, or certification forms through the Human Resources office or arranging a conference with the Director of Human Resources/designee.

The Department of Labor informational poster is displayed in each building on campus as well as each external location.

Coordination with Existing Leave Policies

During a qualified leave, the employee shall exhaust all available paid sick leave, personal leave and vacation before continuing leave on an unpaid basis. All college leave is to run concurrently.

While on unpaid FMLA leave, employees will not accrue sick or vacation time during a month in which they have not been paid. Additionally, employees on FMLA will not be paid for a holiday that occurs during the period that they are on FMLA leave.

FMLA leave will be counted against the employee’s leave entitlement from qualifying approved sick bank leave. If an employee elects to apply for and is approved for an extended leave of absence (PP 4329), the amount of time taken for FMLA leave will be deducted from the period of leave available. Once the FMLA portion of the employee’s leave has ended, and the employee has elected to continue on leave pursuant to another Board policy or regulation, the remaining portion of the leave will be governed by the provisions of the other policy or regulation with respect to compensation, benefits, reinstatement, and all other terms and conditions of employment as set forth associated policy.
Notification

An employee who requests leave under this procedure shall receive written notice of the specific expectations and obligations of the employee, and the consequences for failure to meet these obligations. Such written notice shall be provided within a reasonable time after the employee gives notice of the need for leave under this procedure, usually within five (5) business days.

Before returning to work, an employee who is on leave of absence due to his/her own serious health condition must submit to the Director of Human Resources/designee, a health care provider’s written certification form that the employee is able to return to work. Failure to provide such certification may result in the delay or denial of job restoration.

NOTE: An employee who requests leave that qualifies as family or medical leave under this regulation, and who does not specifically request the type of leave, shall be notified herein that the college reserves the right to designate the leave type, and it will be counted as FMLA leave. Such notification shall occur promptly, usually within five (5) business days after the college has become aware that the leave qualifies as FMLA leave. The notification may be oral or in writing; however, oral notification that the leave has been designated as FMLA leave will be confirmed in writing within five (5) business days.

IV. Leave of Absence

Leave of absence without pay, requires both the recommendation of the appropriate cabinet member and the approval of the college president. A leave of absence not to exceed ninety (90) days may be granted for justifiable absences wherein it is not desirable to terminate the employee. Factors considered in determining whether it is desirable to not terminate the employee and to approve leave of absence without pay include whether:

a) There are extraordinary circumstances present that justify keeping a position open or vacant and preserving it for that employee,

b) it is, objectively and from a business standpoint, in the institution’s best interest to retain the employee because of demonstrated contributions,
c) the employee performs a unique service or has unique qualifications that are required for the position. Such leave must be approved by the college president or his/her designee, and

d) there is minimal harm to students’ education.

Employees who request an unpaid leave of absence due to a Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) qualifying event shall have their leaves processed in accordance with the provisions of PP4321 Family and Medical Leave regarding eligibility, continuation of insurance coverages, and maximum leave period for parents who are both college employees, etc.

If an employee is not eligible for FMLA leave or the period of the leave exceeds the FMLA maximum, the remaining balance of the leave shall be processed in accordance with the provisions of this policy. An employee who is on an unpaid leave of absence which does not qualify as FMLA leave shall be responsible for paying both the employee and employer portion of insurance premiums.

While on leave of absence for justifiable personal reasons other than non-qualifying FMLA leave, illness, injury, or disability, an employee retains accumulated annual and sick leave, but does not earn or accrue additional annual or sick leave. An employee who has qualified for Workers' Compensation may retain accumulated annual and sick leave.

An employee on leave of absence is not entitled to compensation for official holidays occurring within the leave period.

NOTE: All leave of absence requests shall require the written approval of the college president, and the recommendation of appropriate cabinet member and is at the complete discretion of the college.

V. Holiday

Annually, upon recommendation of the President, the Board of Trustees approves certain holidays, duty days and non-duty days. A list of holiday leave days which will recognize paid holidays for full-time employees will be provided annually. Employees will not receive additional compensation for holidays. Employees must be on paid status the working day prior to a holiday to be compensated for the holiday.

The employee is expected to submit the appropriate documentation and file with the college human resources office.
