Mental Health Conference

Since 2013, Carol Goodman has worked in various capacities within FCC Behavioral Health and currently serves as the Quality Improvement Officer for the agency. She earned her Master of Social Work at Washington University in St. Louis and is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW–2016). She has a Post-Master's Certificate in Artificial Intelligence Applications for Health Data. Carol has chaired the Trauma-Informed Care Committee for FCC and has served on the Trauma-Informed Care Collaborative through the Missouri Behavioral Health Council since its inception in 2015. During her career, Carol has served on numerous workgroups and committees, both state-wide and within the agency. She has extensive experience training within her organization and surrounding communities on topics including Trauma-informed Care, Suicide, Mental Health Disorders, and topics of Culture, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.

Moriah Joplin is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) who received a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Central Methodist University and a Master of Social Work degree from the University of Missouri. Moriah has previous experience as a forensic interviewer at a Child Advocacy Center, mental health therapist, and currently serves as the Training Officer at FCCBH. She is a trained facilitator for Mental Health First Aid, Darkness to Light, Wellness Recovery Action Planning (WRAP), and liveMindful. Moriah provides various training within her organization and surrounding communities on topics including Self-care and Wellness, Mental Health Disorders, Trauma-informed Care, Compassion Fatigue, and Sensory Needs.

Corey Reynolds currently serves as the Behavioral Health Support Program Coordinator and full-time Instructor at Three Rivers College. Reynolds earned both his Bachelor's in Counseling and his Master's in Marriage and Family from Lee University and is proud to forever be a Lee Flame. Before becoming a full-time member of the Three Rivers College faculty, Reynolds served in case management in the human service industry. He has a passion for raising awareness for mental health and promotes a positive message normalizing the conversation about mental health. He is involved in local and state initiatives advocating for mental health awareness, suicide prevention, and harm reduction. Currently, Reynolds serves on the State Advisory Council (SAC) for the Missouri Department of Mental Health (DMH), Division of Behavioral Health (DBH), and on the Missouri Student Mental Health Taskforce. Reynolds is also a member of the Board of Directors for Recycling Grace Women's Center in Poplar Bluff, MO and is involved with the Mental Health Awareness Coalition at the Butler County Community Resource Council. Reynolds enjoys taking any opportunity to share about his lived experiences that inspired his passion for mental health and behavioral healthcare issues.
